ities who interacted with our children. This reaffirmed our belief that Great men were Children one day, and Children can be Great men someday. This thought has guided our efforts throughout the year as we worked to build confidence, character and curiosity in every learner. Beyond academics, our children have shone brilliantly in sports, art, and music proving once again that holistic development is not just an ideal but a living reality on our campus.

Their achievements reflect passion, hard work, and the supportive environment created by our team of Sri Prakash. A special word of gratitude goes to our parents, whose trust, encouragement and unwavering belief in us have been the backbone of our progress. Your support motivates us to constantly strive for excellence and offer the best to every child. As we celebrate this term's accomplishments, we carry forward renewed enthusiasm to continue shaping joyful, confident, and compassionate learners. Together, let us keep inspiring and nurturing joyfully the leaders of tomorrow.

Sri Prakash Vidyanketan

As we draw this fruitful academic term to a close, it is with immense gratitude and pride that I reflect upon the experiences that have shaped our journey this year. We began the academic year with a clear and heartfelt vision - to nurture joyful learning for holistic growth. Every initiative, interaction and opportunity was aligned with this purpose, and today we stand enriched by the outcomes. This term was made truly meaningful by the eminent personalities who visited our school and inspired our students with their wisdom, life stories and motivating words. I extend My heartfelt gratitude to Hon'ble Justice U.Durga Prasada Rao, Retd. Judge, High court AP & Telangana; Padma Shri awardee Dr. T. P. Das, Vice Chair Emeritus, L V Prasad Eye Institute; Sri Shankha Brata Bagchi, IPS, Commissioner of Police Visakhapatnam; Sri Maddi Srinivasa Rao; Kirti Chakra Awardee Major Malla Rama Gopal Naidu; Lt. Col Manoj Kumar Sinha, SM (Retd.); Sri Ashok Kandimalla, a professional photographer; Sri B. K. Agrawal, Renowned portrait, fashion and glamour photographer; Surgeon Rear Admiral Ajit Gopinath, Command Medical Officer, Headquarters Eastern Naval Command and Dr. Dipal D Patel, Psychologist, Director-Insight Parul University, Vadodara. Each of them added depth and purpose to our students' learning experiences. Their stories of discipline, courage, creativity, and service opened windows to new aspirations. Their presence reminded us that learning is not confined to classrooms but thrives through meaningful human connections. I extend my heartfelt thanks to Dr. A.V.L. Jagannatha Rao, Retd. Dy. Commissioner, KVS; Dr. Meegada Ramalinga Swamy; Prof. G. Chakradhar Rao, Retd. Mathematics dept. AU; Sri Satyendra Kumar, Former Head-Quality & Productivity, Infosys; Mr. Phaneendrudu Vadlamani; Dr. Krishna Chandak, a specialist in yoga and alternative medicine; Mrs. Sirisha Rudraru; Dr. Pratima Bendi; Mrs. Nivedita Ganguly, Senior Assistant Editor, The Hindu; Dr. P. Guru Prasad; Sri Sohan Hatangadi and Mrs. Jayashree Hatangadi for leaving a lasting impact on the young minds. I also extend my heartfelt thanks to Sri Kulbhushan Kain, School Educator; Dr. C. V. Rao, MD, DM, Consultant Cardiologist, CARE Hospital, Vsp.; Dr. C. V. Narasimham, Retd. Principal, Ramnath Secondary School; Sri P. A Beacon of Courage : Kirti Chakra Awardee

Major Malla Ram Gopal Naidu

We greeted a true embodiment of valor and selfless service: Major Malla Rama Gopal Naidu, Kirti Chakra awardee. His interaction left an indelible mark, reminding everyone of the extraordinary sacrifices made for our nation. An alumnus of Sainik School Korukonda, Major Naidu topped his classes at the National Defence Academy and Indian Military Academy, earning the President's Gold Medal. As a distinguished officer of the Rashtriya Rifles, his bravery during a critical counter-infiltration operation in Kupwara led to the elimination of five terrorists, earning him the prestigious Kirti Chakra in 2025—the first from Telugu-speaking states to receive this unparalleled honor in the Indian Army. During his motivating session, Major Naidu shared his challenging experiences on the J&K border and also candidly reflected on his journey from struggling student to decorated officer. Major Naidu's message to the students was anchored in three powerful words that led to his success: Perseverance, Patience, and Consistency. His journey is a true beacon of strength, honor, and duty for all Prakashites.

From Prakashite to Pilot: Alumnus Nilamani Polai

We welcomed back alumnus, Future Flight Lieutenant Nilamani Polai, who shared his journey from our school to the threshold of a prestigious career in the Indian Armed Forces. He secured a rank of 120 at Odisha University of Agriculture and Technology and an impressive All India Rank of 90 in the Combined Defence Services (CDS) exam. Nilamani shared that the NCC was the true foundation of his love for defense, instilling crucial values like discipline and teamwork. He provided practical advice to students, detailing the various UPSC exam and interview channels for entry, and highlighted the key subjects necessary to master the competitive examinations.

Dr. Ch. Sri Krishna emphasizes the significance of yoga for mothers, particularly in today's fast-paced world where they juggle multiple responsibilities.

Applying Business Excellence to Life: Seminar with Sri Satyendra Kumar

Prakashites gained valuable insights from Mr. Satyendra Kumar, a quality management and business excellence expert with rich experience at Infosys, Tata, and CII Institute of Quality. He inspired students to apply corporate principles of measurement and continuous improvement to their personal lives. Sri Kumar emphasized self-reflection through measuring one's actions, embracing mistakes as learning steps, and practicing active listening as a key life skill. His powerful message encouraged students to view failures as temporary setbacks and to seize opportunities with hard work and resilience, paving the way for personal and academic success.

Interactive Session of parents with Lt. Col. Manoj Kumar Sinha (Retd.)

Lt. Col. Manoj Kumar Sinha, SM (Retd.)—speaker, actor, poet, and gallantry awardee—interacted with parents, sharing his inspiring life journey. He emphasized that true education lies in instilling values and shaping children into good human beings. He urged parents to be role models and nurture humane qualities for a better society, reminding everyone that success lies in contribution, not achievement. Parents deeply appreciated his insightful and motivational session.

Padma Shri awardee Dr. T.P.Das, Vice Chair Emeritus, L.V.Prasad Eye Institute interaction with prakashites.

Professional Development Program

Fostering a Growth Mindset - A Session by Mr. Ramesh Keshav Das

Mr. Ramesh Keshav Das inspired our teachers with a thought-provoking session on the power of a growth mindset. He reminded us how a simple word like "yet" can transform a child's perspective from "I can't do this" to "I can't do this yet," nurturing resilience and confidence.

Nurturing 21st Century Skills - A Session by Ms. Neha Sood

Ms. Neha Sood led an insightful discussion on the essential skills required by today's generation of students. She highlighted the importance of creating a positive and inclusive classroom environment where every child's strengths and abilities are recognized. Emphasizing the concept of the 5Cs (Confidence, Creativity, Collaboration, Critical Thinking, Communication)

Exploring Phonics with Dr. P.Ravi Kumar

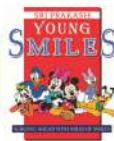

Mr. P.Ravi Kumar conducted an engaging session on phonics as a systematic and scientific study of the alphabet and the various sounds associated with each letter. Through a series of interactive activities, he introduced the idea of unlearn-learn-relearn, encouraging participants to approach phonics with a fresh perspective.

Understanding Multiple Intelligences - A Session by Ms. Meena Suresh

Ms. Meena Suresh emphasized that no single child can possess all forms of intelligence, but each one has unique strengths. Some students may demonstrate logical or spatial intelligence, while others may show strength in linguistic, interpersonal, intrapersonal, kinesthetic, or visual intelligence. To help teachers address this diversity, she recommended practical classroom activities that can engage learners with different abilities, ensuring that every child has an opportunity to excel.

Cardiologist), Sri P. Janardhan (Joint Secretary, RSS Sevak), Sri U. Durga Prasad Rao (Retd. High Court Judge), Sri Kulbhushan Kain (Renowned School Educator), and Sri C.V. Narasimham. The guests offered powerful messages to the faculty. Dr. C.V. Rao stressed that teachers are entrusted with the responsibility ensuring that children are physically, mentally, and emotionally fit. Sri P. Janardhan highlighted the uniqueness of the term 'Guru', stating it is equivalent to God in Indian culture. Sri U. Durga Prasad Rao underscored the vital need to teach children values. Sri Kulbhushan Kain firmly stated that No AI can replace a teacher, and Sri C.V. Narasimham remarked, "If you are not updated, you are outdated." School Director Sri Ch. Vasu Prakash felicitated the faculty members who have served as long-standing pillars of the school. Recognition was also given to the winners of recent competitions (Singing, TLMs, Photography, and Quiz) and the teachers who achieved the highest subject averages in the 10th and 12th board examinations. The day concluded with a heartfelt celebration of the dedication to teaching and the strength of community.

International Marine STEM Education Workshop : A "Pandora's Box" of Learning

Our students participated in the International Marine STEM Education Workshop held from August 29-31, 2025 at PSU, Wittayayusorn Surat Thani School, Thailand. The programme offered an exciting blend of academic learning, cultural exposure, and hands-on marine science activities. International experts, including Prof.

Sudhakar Agarkar, Prof. Ong Eng Tek, Prof. Janchai Yingpryoon, Prof. Chou Chien Heng, and Dr. Ashish Lambat, delivered practical sessions on topics such as ocean detection, sustainable aquaculture, coastal erosion, marine pollution, and blue carbon. Our students presented posters on the role of sharks as top predators, coastal erosion solutions, and marine pollution. Engaging activities like Ice Breaking, Team Building, and Sea Seeker enriched their experience. Cultural visits to the Grand Palace, Wat Phra Kaew, the Reclining Buddha, and local markets added to the excitement, along with warm hospitality from PSU students and a memorable birthday celebration for G. Saatvik. Students returned inspired, sharing that the workshop deepened their understanding of marine ecosystems, made STEM learning more relevant, and encouraged interest in future careers in marine science. The trip was both academically enriching and culturally rewarding.

I.I.M.U.N, Visakhapatnam 2025 - A Celebration of Diplomacy, Dialogue, and Leadership

We with immense joy hosted the India's International Movement to Unite Nations (I.I.M.U.N), Visakhapatnam Conference 2025 from July 11th to 13th, bringing together over 400 delegates from schools across the city. The Opening Ceremony set a powerful tone with a short film on I.I.M.U.N's mission and enthralling cultural performances celebrating India's timeless heritage. Distinguished guests Surgeon Rear Admiral Ajit Gopinath and Dr. Dipal D Patel inspired participants with thought-provoking insights on meaningful choices and mental well-being, establishing a spirit of purpose and reflection. Across the following days, delegates immersed themselves in dynamic committee sessions including DISEC, UNODC, UNGA, WHO, NITI Aayog, and more, engaging in rigorous debates and policy-making. The lively Social Night fostered bonds of friendship, while a mindful Yoga session on the final day prepared delegates for the concluding rounds of debate and resolution passing, highlighting their negotiation and leadership skills. The conference drew to a memorable close with a grand Closing Ceremony featuring vibrant performances by the Sri Prakash School Band, elevating the celebratory spirit. Dr.

Shankha Brata Bagchi, IPS, Commissioner of Police, Visakhapatnam, delivered a stirring keynote, leaving a deep impression on all present. Awards for outstanding delegates recognized individual brilliance, while Sri Prakash Vidyaniketan was once again honored with the Best Delegation Trophy, for the second consecutive year establishing a proud milestone for the institution. I.I.M.U.N Visakhapatnam 2025 was more than a conference—it was a journey of vision, dialogue, hospitality, and the spirit of global citizenship, empowering young leaders to shape a better tomorrow.

Prakashites celebrated World Space Week Kids dazzled as the Sun, Earth, planets, Galaxy of stars, meteors, asteroids, all came together to explore the wonders of our galaxy. It was a stellar event that sparked curiosity and creativity in our young space enthusiasts.

Our Kindergarten continues to be a vibrant and nurturing space where children learn through joy, exploration, and creativity. The academic year began with an exciting First Day of School, filled with fun activities like Balancing the Cup, Count & Match with Color Balls, Balloon Fun, and Clown Wig Dress-Up. Children happily posed with the "First Day of School" photo frame, creating wonderful memories and keepsakes. Daily learning is enriched through Circle Time, Storytelling, and Phonics Sessions, which help children develop communication skills, vocabulary, listening habits, and confidence in self-expression. The Play Pen and structured Physical Fitness Sessions further support gross motor development, coordination, and overall well-being. Our Fun with Numbers Day brought math alive through engaging activities such as Number & Name Matching, Listen & Act, Strawberry Dot Craft, Dial the Number, and Drum Beat Counting. These activities strengthened number sense, concentration, and fine motor skills while making math enjoyable. During the Shapes Day Celebration, children explored 2D and 3D shapes through hands-on games like Dice Roll, Sand Search, Sorting, and Pick and Drop. The highlight of the day was the creative 3D Shape Headgear Craft, which blended learning with imagination. Special celebrations like Parents' Day and Dussehra fostered cultural awareness and strengthened the bond between home and school. Parents were actively involved in all events, and regular updates ensured they remained informed about their child's growth and developmental milestones. With purposeful activities, creative craft takeaways, strong parent involvement, and a warm, play-based learning environment, our Kindergarten stands out as a joyful, enriching place where children begin their educational journey with excitement and confidence.

Prakashites pay rich tribute to The Iron Man and Unifier of India Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel

Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel is also known as the Iron Man of India. He is remembered as a very strong and dynamic freedom fighter of India. He had actively contributed to the Indian Freedom Movement. Sardar Patel was one of the most eminent and prominent leaders of the Indian Freedom struggle. He has immense contribution in bringing Independence to our country.

Early Life and Education: Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel was born on 31st October 1875 in Leuva Patel Patidar community in Nadiad village in Gujarat. His full name is Vallabhbhai Jhaverbhai Patel and popularly known as Sardar Patel. Sardar Patel's father, Zaverbhaji Patel, served in the Army of Queen of Jhansi and mother, Ladbai, was inclined towards spirituality. Patel showed great bravery since childhood. There had been an instance when he treated a painful boil without any hesitation using a hot iron rod. At the age of 22, when everyone completes their graduation, Sardar Patel completed his matriculation and due to this everyone thought that he would be doing ordinary jobs. After completing his matriculation, Sardar Patel continued his studies and became a law graduate and later travelled to England to become a barrister. When he returned to India he continued practicing law in Ahmedabad, Gujarat.

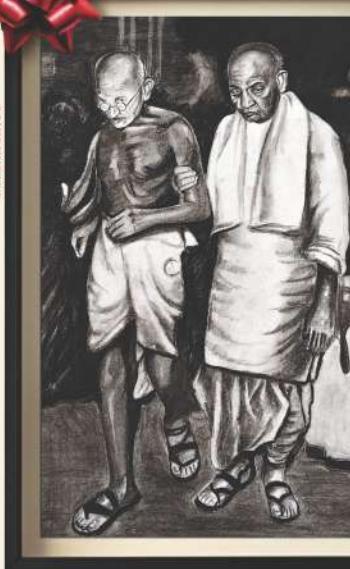

Contribution towards India's Independence Movement : A meeting with M K Gandhi in October 1917 brought him closer to the Indian Independence movement. He joined Indian National Congress and his initial movements started with Satyagraha in Gujarat against British atrocities. Later he actively participated and volunteered in the Quit India Movement in 1942 closely working with Gandhiji. Patel had a very strong contribution in uniting the people of India during India Freedom movements and was jailed many times. The feeling of patriotism and urge to expel out British from Indian Territory became his first and only objective. His life has been an inspiring and motivating one. Firstly, he achieved his professional goals with very little support from others and thereafter playing a major decisive role in bringing the people of India together to fight for the nation's independence. His belief in the principle of Unity in Diversity and stand united for the common cause of India's Independence made him the 'Iron Man of India'. Due to his leadership qualities and ability to connect to masses, he has been given the title of Sardar Patel, meaning Leader Patel.

Life after India's Independence

: After Independence, he played a prominent role in the integration of India. He persuaded the rulers of princely states to be united and be part of One India – One Nation, by traveling to far-flung areas and border areas. Initially, after Independence, he was appointed as Home Minister of India and simultaneously the Commander in Chief of Indian Armed Forces. Later he also became the 1st Deputy Prime Minister of India. He is among one of the three leaders who led India from 1947 to 1950. Sardar Patel started keeping unwell rapidly since the summer of 1950 and died on 15th December, 1950 after suffering a massive heart attack at Birla House in Bombay, now Mumbai, Maharashtra.

Achievements : Vallabhbhai Patel achieved many titles, such as "Sardar", "Iron Man of India", and "Bharat Ratna Sardar Patel". The title "Sardar", meaning Leader in English, was given to him by Mahatma Gandhi. He was called the "Iron Man of India" for his unwavering attempts to integrate the princely states into the Indian federation. Because of his contribution to Unite India, he was awarded the Bharat Ratna in 1991 by Sri. P. V. Narasimha Rao, 41 years after his death.
